

New Tool Helping Children Who Suffer From Seizures

Surgeons at Cook Children's Hospital teamed up with a robot that offers a less invasive alternative to open craniotomy, and it's already showing a lot of promise.

The video and the article here:

<http://dfw.cbslocal.com/video/category/news/3620063-new-tool-helping-children-who-suffer-from-seizures/>